The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake . . .

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff

they comfort me. Thou preparest a table

before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over . . . Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever . . .

I am sorry it has taken me so long to reply but for some reason it would not let me post on the board so I emailed you instead.

Tennessee "TENNIE" Hamby was my great grandmother. She married my great grandpa Nunneley and they had one child who Lewis Elmo Nunneley, SR. After G-grandpa died she married Eli Leaf and they had two children, My Uncle "Duck" (will get his name for you) and Aunt Elsie who now lives near Anchorage, Alaska. After Eli died, she married Ben Mayo and they moved to Oregon during WW II for work.

I can get you all info on Granny Tennie's marriage dates and all death dates. My father has all of this information. ALSO, the Hamby family tree lists the marriage of Elmo and Kathryn (my grand parents), but it has her last name down incorrectly. Her last name was EDWARDS.

Any more info that you may need as far as Elmo and Katheryn's children, I can give you that as well.

Hi Stephany,
I, too, had problems trying to post to GenForum so contacted them and apparently the problem has been fixed.
Your line is:
Anderson Nunneley (born ca 1765 / died before 1830)
married Martha Baldwin (born ca 1770 / died 1848/49)
Issue: nine children

Joseph Alexander Nunneley (born 9 Sep 1802 / died after 1866) married # 1 - Nancy Easley (born 23 Aug 1805/06 / died Apr 1850)
Issue: 19 children
Joseph Alexander Nunneley (dates as above) married # 2 - Clarissa Moore Maxwell (born 12 Jul 1817 / died 9 Feb 1908)
Joseph married Clarissa on 20 May 1851 in Franklin Co. AR. She was the widow of Joel Maxwell.
Issue of Joseph and Clarissa:
Joseph Alexander Nunneley, Jr. (born 27 Jan 1853 / died 19 Oct 1900)
married / Holly Clementine Walker or Howard (YOUR LINE)

Lawson Harrison Nunneley (born 13 Apr 1854 / died 27 Nov 1938) married #1 Malinda Caroline Carter (nine children) (MY HUSBAND'S LINE) married #2 Mable Rogers Lowery (one child)

Big question....what was the name of the wife of Joseph Alexander Nunneley, Jr.? Was it Holly Clementine Walker or Clementine Howard?? Clementine Nunneley is buried in Hazelgreen Cemetery in Newton Co. Missouri, but have no idea where Joseph is buried.
I do show the name of the wife of Lewis Elmo Nunneley, Jr. as Mary Catherine Tuttle, but whoever gave me the information was not certain of her name. Is it Mary Kathryn Edwards?
Thanks for the reply and look forward to anything you can tell me to correct the records.

I show that Malinda Tennessee "Lennie" Hamby married Marlin F. Nunneley (date unknown). Tennessee was born 24 Oct 1896, probably in Carroll Co. AR to James Ephraim Hamby and Samantha Margaret Bunch. Marlin was born 21 Nov 1887 and died 22 Jan 1919 (buried in Liberty Cemetery, Newton Co. AR)
Do you have a death date for Tennessee Hamby Nunneley? She may have married to Eli Leaf and Ben Mayo after the death of Marlin. Your help appreciated.

Letter to Lawson Harrison Nunneley from Malinda Caroline Nunneley

Dinsmore, Arkansas
March 31st, 1904
Mr. L. H. Nunnally

My Dear Husband
Your notice for divorce duly received, contents noted. In reply to same I wish to, in a friendly way call your attention to some of the alegations set forth in your complaint. I notice that you state that you gave me your farm. How can you make this statement, when you had no farm, this homestead of our dear dead boy, Monroe, is all that you could have thought of when you made this statement. It was not relinquished to you nor to the Government and there could not be any right (   ) you to give me and the land can only be proved upon for those orphan children of his, and not for me. So my dear you see, that you have made a sad mistake to say this.
Second, now, My Dear child, is it not a fact, that when you bought up your load of fruit and got ready to start off with it, that you told me that you was never coming back. Did I know the cause for this expression, though you had have said many a time things similar to this and me not knowing what you ment (   ) knew that I always told you that I would go with you any where that we could make a living and would be there now if you had done what you told me you would do. That is you told me that if I would go with you that you would not sell the (cows ?) that is left here and that I would have them to come back to and that you was to treat me kindly as you used to when we was married. You knew that when I could not go to cotton field and pick cotton when I was not able to do such work that you said that you could not keep us up out there and you know well that I never run you in debt, but washed for Brutus St. Clare and Otto Key and got money and got the children clothes only getting an apron for myself and many other things that I will not mention but you will never know how you talked when Doctor (next few words illegible) Please think what you are doing. I want you to think something about what you promised me about taking Monroes little children. You know what you said and you know that I cannot make a living for them without a farm or team. Please tell me what I am to do. No money, no provisions and am to be a lone forsaken woman. I have been true to you in all that my (   ) marriage vows (next few words illegible) Almighty God say the same.

I see that you are (word illegible) first me away without a just cause. A thing that I could not think you could do remembering your pledges to me when we were young and able to work, but I find that my confidence has been betrayed, and that by one in whom my heart had ever confided and now pray tell me what I am to do. Will you be so kind as to tell me. I only want you to write and tell me just what you think. If you are determined to abandon me, I want you to do what you promised about the little orphan children. I only ask of you what is my just rites under the law as I understand it. I want my half of the property and money which you know that I have not got through you so stated in your petition to the court. I also want my Darling children, who are my own flesh and blood given by that just God who is this day watching our ever act and thought. Let not ambition mark your useful toil. I am as you know a poor helpless woman who would give the world could it be for you to come back to me what (   ) was, But alas, I see that this can never be for you have gone astray and see other climes in which to dwell.

God Bless you my dear and I am now going to say Farewell which I am only forced to (next line of letter illegible) but only to gratfy that long wished for desire of yours to get rid of me, a woman in whom you made believe that you was a true man. Now, if it is your desire to have a divorce, I shall not object though I want my rites in the children, money and property which you know that I have not got. Now my Dear, Don't get mad, but answer me kindly and with that (next two or three lines of letter illegible) under any and all circumstances ( ) your ( ) as a man to a breaved wife. Shall I say Good By my Lover Good By. We know not (next line of letter illegible).

Let me hear from you.
Respectfully
M. C. Nunally

This 100+ year old letter from Malinda Caroline Nunneley to her husband, Lawson Harrison Nunneley was very difficult to transcribe. Several words are illegible and where the letter had been folded over the years, some lines are obliterated at the fold. Malinda Caroline Carter Nunneley born in 1858, never remarried and died in 1932 and is buried at the Liberty Cemetery in Newton Co. Arkansas. Lawson Harrison Nunneley born in 1854, remarried to Mable Rogers Lowery (no license has ever been found) and had one daughter. He died in 1938 in Missouri and is buried at the Ural Cemetery, near Elk City, Beckham Co. Oklahoma.

Hi Mary,

I will be happy to check for an obituary when I go to the Milton Library on Monday. Our collection is extensive, thanks to the efforts of faithful volunteers who recognize the value of such a resource.

Neither the library nor the genealogical society provide funds to copy and mail information, so it is necessary to request a reimbursement of $1. I'm sure that you will be happy to assist in this.

You may send the reimbursement to the address which will be included with the obituary.

Judy Jolly, Milton Library Genealogy Volunteer

MR. AND MRS. ELBERT A. NUNNELEY

Couple at Keystone Since '98 To Observe 60th Anniversary

World's Own Service

KEYSTONE, Dec. 12—Mr. and Mrs. Elbert A. Nunneley will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary here Thursday.

The Nunneleys moved to Keystone from Arkansas Dec. 7, 1898, before the town was built. The couple farmed from 1899 to 1916 when Nunneley went to work in the oil field.

He worked in the oil fields until 1931. In 1931 the couple moved to town and truck gardened until 1951 when they retired to "take things easy."

Nunneley, 83, and his wife, Sennie, 76, had nine children, eight of them still living. One of their seven boys, Orvin, died in 1920, when he was 19.

Four of the Nunneley sons live in Tulsa: Chester H. Nunneley, 474 S. Indianapolis ave., a bread salesman; Virgil W. Nunneley, 1424 N. Boston pl., retired Southern Hills caddy master; Alex H. Nunneley, 6532 W. 1st st., a trouble-shooter for Oklahoma Natural Gas Co., and Wilbur R. Nunneley, 1025 E. 30th st., manager of Bryan and Sons, beer distributors.

Two other sons live in Texas, Herbert L. Nunneley in Midland and Ernest R. Nunneley in Borger.

Miss Golda Nunneley, a daughter, lives in San Diego, Calif. Their other daughter, Mrs. Ines Duck, resides here.

The Nunneleys have 18 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

FRIDAY 13th's THEIR LUCKY DAY

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Most folks are looking forward to next Friday--the thirteenth--with foreboding, but not Mr. and Mrs. Elbert A. Nunneley of Keystone, because to them the day means the passage of 50 years of wedded happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Nunneley were married Dec. 13, 1896 in Densmore, Ark.

"It was a Sunday", Nunneley recalled. "We didn't think anything of the fact it was the thirteenth, but I've often thought since that there's nothing to this bad luck stuff, because our marriage has been happy all the way through."

Born and reared near Densmore, Nunneley and Senie J. McCollough went to school together and "it just got to be a foregone conclusion that we would be married when we were old enough."

The couple was married at her father's farm home by her uncle, a Free Will Baptist minister. Two years later they moved to Keystone and have resided there since.

Nunneley farmed for a number of years, then was a pumper for an independent oil operator until his age caused his retirement. Since then he has devoted his time to gardening and loafing at Lang's grocery.

Mrs. Nunneley keeps house--and if her husband does say so, himself--she's a good housekeeper and a fine cook. She also spends a good deal of her time corresponding with the seven children who live in other cities.

And they never have to worry about getting their letters mailed, for their eldest daughter, Mrs. Inez Duck, is the postmaster's wife at Keystone.

The other children are: Wilbur R. Nunneley, 8311 E. Fifteenth St; Virgil W. Nunneley, 915 S. Cheyenne av., Chester, 474 S. Indianapolis Av; Alex, east of Tulsa; Herbert, Sundown, Texas; Ernest, Borger, Texas, and Goldie Nunneley, of Long Beach, Cal. There are 18 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The above was taken from a newspaper article in the possession of Jerry Winfield Nunneley(grandson of E. A. Nunneley)It appeared in the Tulsa paper in Dec, 1946

"United States Census, 1920," index and images, FamilySearch (https://familysearch.org/pal:/MM9.1.1/MJM4-BGG : accessed 02 Jun 2013), Elsie M Taylor in entry for Jessie N Taylor, 1920.

In 1898, almost 100 years ago, a young couple, Elbert Alexander and Senie Jane McCollough Nunneley left Madison County, Arkansas by wagon to move to a new land. With them came an infant daughter, Ines. After a long journey, they arrived in Tulsa late one evening and spent the night at a local wagon yard. Many others who had traveled by wagon from distant places were circled in the yard near a large fire built for warmth. They left early the following morning for their new home in Jordan Valley Township, Pawnee County, Oklahoma, Indian Territory.

By 1916, the family had grown to seven sons and two daughters: Ines married Arthur Duck; Alexander Harrison married Elsie Taylor; John Orvin died in 1921, at age 20; Ernest married Flora Pogue; Golda never married, but raised her brother Virgil's sons, Jim and Dick; Wilbur married Lessye Patterson; Virgil married Ola Grace Henderson; Herbert married Mary Alice Roach and Chester married Rosene Cook.

The first son, Alexander Harrison Nunneley, born March 5, 1900, was named for pioneer grandfathers and great-grandfathers, Joseph Alexander Nunneley, born in North Carolina in 1801, Alexander McCollough born in Indiana in 1837 and Lawson Harrison Nunneley born in Arkansas in 1854. Those men and their families had also, made long journeys by wagon from Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Indiana to Arkansas and new lands. Such strength and faith from earlier generations passed to this first son.

The final journey has been made by this son who was the last surviving child of Elbert and Senie Jane. Alexander Harrison Nunneley, on December 3, 1993, joined his Elsie, his companion and his wife of 71 years who made her journey on September 17 of this year.

The strength and faith of earlier generations now passes to this generation and another first son, Doyle Alex Nunneley. May he pass these gifts to all family members, especially to his grandson, Kody Nunneley, age six months and our newest Nunneley.

The following is from a sermon, written and delivered by Elbert Nunneley in 1915 at the Freewill Baptist Church in Keystone, Oklahoma:

"The word love is one of the greatest words, in my notion, in the English language. A word that has a deep meaning. Yes, love, obedience, victory and eternity"

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
For Thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

OBITUARY

John Orvin Nunneley, who was born Aug. 7, 1901, near Keystone, Okla., died November 23, 1921 at his father's home near Keystone, Okla. He was the twenty-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Nunneley, who have recently identified with the Church of God at Keystone.

John Orvin was sick only a few days with typhoid fever. His death threw a dark shadow of sorrow over the entire community, and especially over his young comrades. He was very much loved because of his quiet and good conduct at home and elsewhere, —so faithful to mother—and he was known as a model young man, concerning good morals. Up to his illness he had never professed Christianity. How sad, especially for one of his type. We are so hopeful he ma his peace with God during his illness. For several days he seemed unable to talk, but tried so hard to say something to his mother, but we never knew what it was. He leaves a mother and a father, six brothers and two sisters, with a number of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

His funeral service, which was tender and melting scene, was attended by a concourse of friends and relatives, all of whom seemed deeply affected at that hour's service, and we believe that God strove mightily with the hearts of young men and women during that sad hour. The funeral service was conducted at the Baptist church, by the writer, after which his body was given into the hands of the Modern Woodmen, of which he was a member, to be laid away in the Sinnett cemetery.

OBITUARY

John Orvin Kennedy, [illegible] was born May [illegible], near [illegible], Ohio, died November 12, 1921 at his father's home, near [illegible]. He was the twenty-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kennedy, who have recently associated with the Church of God at Boynton.

John Orvin was sick only a few days with typhoid fever. His death threw a dark shadow of sorrow over the entire community, and especially over his young comrades. He was very much loved because of his good man[illegible] gave comfort at home and elsewhere —so faithful to mother—and he was known as a model young man, exerting good morals. Up to his [illegible] since he had never professed Christianity, then and especially for [illegible] his type. We are so touched to know his mind went that during the illness for several days he seemed unable to talk, but when he could he was telling of his mother. That we don't know what it was. He leaves a mother and a father, six brothers and two sisters, with a number of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

The funeral services, which were touching and striking scenes, were attended by a multitude of friends and relatives, all of whom seemed deeply affected at that hour's services, and we believe that God spoke mightily with the hearts of young men and women during that sad hour. The funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church, by the writer, after which his body was given into the hands of the Modern Woodmen, of which he was a member, to be laid away in the Bissett cemetery.
